Resume

Stan Finkelstein

Employment

September 2002 – Present	Adjunct faculty member: Institute for Public Service, Seattle University
June 1990 – January 2009	Executive Director of the Association of Washington Cities. Primary areas of responsibility: Administration of a multi-faceted state municipal league delivering a broad array of services ranging from legislative advocacy and technical assistance to employee benefits and property/liability insurance coverage for member cities.
1988 – Present	Instructor for the Washington State Department of Personnel Management Training Service. Co-instructor of the module titled "The Budget and Budgetary Process". Module was design4ed to familiarize senior state employees with the state budgetary process and how to be more effective in discharging their budgetary responsibilities.
October 1973 – June 1990	Assistant Director of the Association of Washington Cities. Primary areas of responsibility: Municipal Finance, Transportation, General Government, and legislative relations.
Fall Quarter of 1985 – Spring Quarter 1987	Adjunct faculty member at the Evergreen State College Taught graduate school course titled "Budgeting and fiscal Policy". Previously, I had taught several short courses on public sector budgeting for the graduate School of Public Administration at the Evergreen State College.
July 1969-October 1973	Senior Research Analyst, Washington state Legislative Council. Areas of concentration: state and local revenue and taxation, commerce, and economic development.
December 1968-June 1969	Research Analyst, Revenue and Taxation Committee, Washington State House of Representatives

Other

June 2010 – Present	Chair of the Washington State Public Works Board (Appointed by Governor Christine Gregoire)
June 2010 – December 2010	Training Consultant: U.S. Customs and Border Protection Agency – (Federal Budget Training
June 2011 – Present	Consultant to Jim Cline and Associates (law firm)

Education

1965	Bachelor of Science – Economics University of Illinois
1968	Master of Arts – Economics University of Washington

Personal

Born 1943, Newark, N.J.
Married to Marjie Finkelstein
Two children
Residence: Olympia, Washington