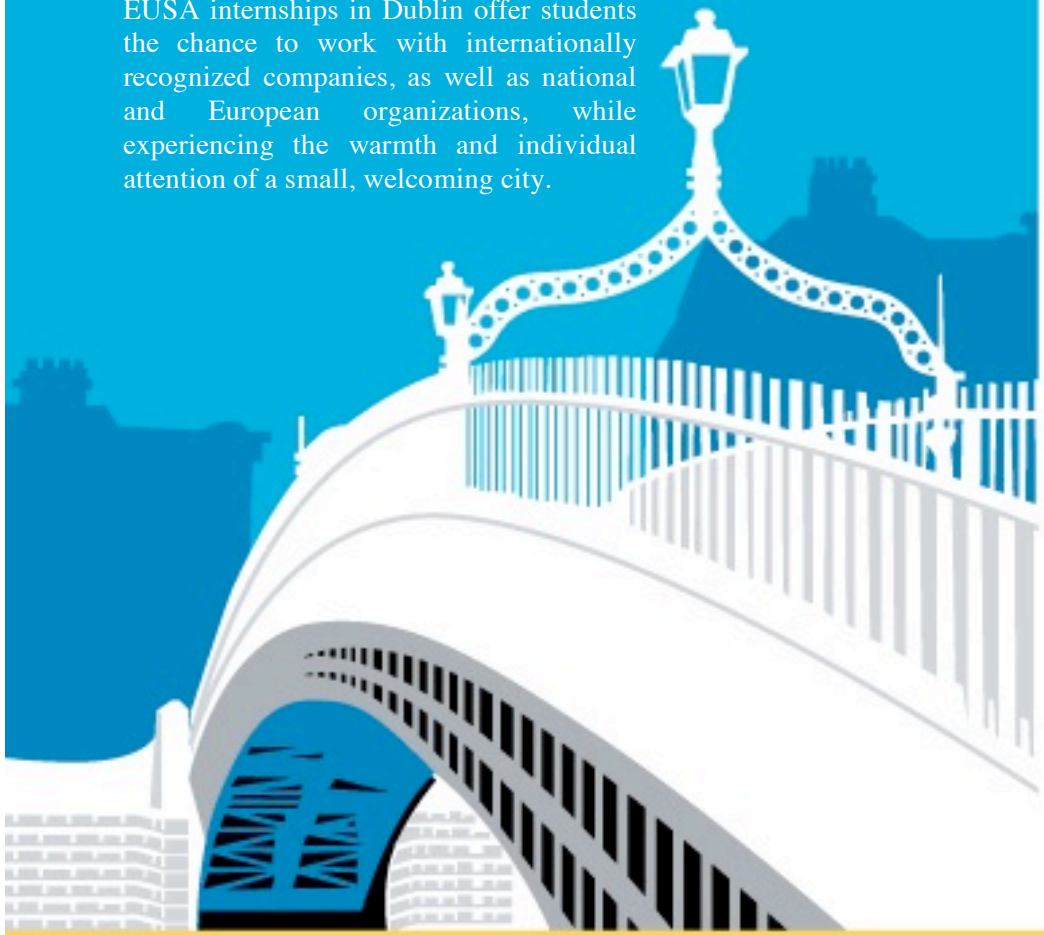
Dublin

EUSA internships in Dublin offer students the chance to work with internationally recognized companies, as well as national and European organizations, while experiencing the warmth and individual attention of a small, welcoming city.



Some Industry Sectors

Business & Industry
financial services
consultancies
treasury departments investment and pension funds reinsurance
public relations agencies advertising agencies
marketing agencies
human resources departments
IT & telecom
software development retail
hotels & tourism

Media, Arts & Literature newspapers/magazines broadcast news (radio & TV) film production/development casting directors / agents on-line news portals publishers
literary journals
theaters
art galleries
museums
film festivals
dance companies
fashion

Law, Politics & Social Sciences criminal & civil law legal advice centers
political parties
Department of Foreign Affairs European Parliament
Department of the Environment, Heritage & Local Government Constituency offices for TD's and members of the European Parliament think tanks
advocacy groups & NGOs

Healthcare, Psychology & Social Services hospitals
research laboratories occupational/physical therapy neuropsychology
adolescent rehabilitation clinics AIDS awareness
homeless shelters
refugee information services

Education
primary schools
secondary schools
adolescent outreach educational consultants adult education educational policy organizations research organizations children's cultural centers

"This internship has been very beneficial to me and has surpassed my expectations. I feel as though I know just as much about the laws of Ireland as I do the laws of my own country."

– Megan R., Boston University, intern at O'Hanrahan Lally Solicitors

"I was not expecting to be handed real creative briefs and have my work go on to production. Both happened within my first week here."

– Katie S., Boston University, intern at McConnell's Advertising