Sport and Entertainment Management MBA

The MBA in Sport and Entertainment Management program admits students in the summer quarter of each year. Applications begin to be reviewed on February 15th and continue until the cohort of 30 is filled. Admission to the MBA in Sport and Entertainment Management program is competitive and the file review is holistic. Applicants' academic history, graduate exam performance, motivation, aptitude for graduate education, personal goals, recommendations, and professional experiences will be considered.

Application Instructions and Procedures

All application materials must be received by the application deadline to receive full consideration. For application deadlines and entry terms, refer to the priority deadlines. International applicants and those with international transcripts should consult the International Requirements Page, for deadlines and other requirements, as they may differ.

- Evidence of a four-year baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited institution or U.S. equivalent. Submit official or unofficial copies of transcripts, degree certificates, and exam score reports for every school attended in the last 60 semester/90 quarter credits as well as any post-baccalaureate credits. You may upload the unofficial transcript(s) for your institution(s) within the Academic History tab of the application. You may also upload the transcript(s) following the submission of your application via your Status Page. Upon an offer of admission, you will be required to submit official copies of provisional documents within your first quarter of enrollment.
- Cumulative GPA of at least 3.00 in the last 90 quarter or 60 semester credits as well as any postbaccalaureate coursework.
- Scores from the GRE or GMAT exams taken within the last five years are optional except for those subject to the Three-Year Degree Policy and those who earned degrees from institutions issuing non-graded transcripts.
- Two (2) letters of recommendation from individuals who have evaluated applicant's academic work or supervised practical experience and are able to assess potential for graduate study. These letters should address applicant's potential for academic success at graduate level, specifically noting fit of applicant to mission and goals of Seattle University and the MBA in Sport and Entertainment Management program.
- 400-word essay describing how the MBA in Sport and Entertainment Management program (specifically mission, goals, learning outcomes, and classes) will help the applicant achieve personal and professional goals.
- Professional résumé.
- Additional interviews may be required.

- Graduate post baccalaureate applicants who received a baccalaureate degree or higher from Seattle University or a recognized college or university in the United States, Canada, Great Britain, Ireland, New Zealand, Australia, Bahamas, Jamaica, Kenya, Singapore, Belize, Nigeria, and Trinidad and Tobago will not be required to submit English proficiency test scores. Students earning a degree in a country other than those listed above may provide official documentation from the degree-granting institution verifying that all instruction was in English. A minimum of three years of enrollment at the university is required. English proficiency may be met with an official TOEFL score of 86 (IBT), or the IELTS exam with a minimum score of 6.5; PTE score of 63; or Duolingo score of 110.
