

As your student journey ends and you embark on future careers and studies, you are forever a Redhawk and will always have a place with the Seattle University Alumni Association (SUAA).

The SUAA is for all alumni, working to foster lifetime relationships by providing opportunities for professional growth, learning, engaging and serving the community alongside past, present and future Redhawks.

Check out a few of the ways you can stay connected and engaged with the Seattle U community.

EVENTS AND PROGRAMS

The SUAA hosts a number of events, programs and volunteer opportunities throughout the year, including Alumni Day of Service, networking happy hours, reunions and so much more.

BENEFITS

Enjoy access to a range of exclusive alumni perks, insurance discounts, educational opportunities, reduced gym memberships at the Eisiminger Fitness Center and more.

PROFESSIONAL GROWTH

Develop new skills, advance your career, and enjoy personal growth through our Career & Mentoring Series. Hosted by coaching professionals, these workshops cover a variety of topics including leadership development, career planning, financial management, mindfulness and spirituality.

SU LICENSE PLATES

Planning to live in Washington state? Show your school pride by applying for a Seattle University Alumni license plate. Proceeds go towards supporting the SU Student Scholarship Fund.

ALUMNI COMMUNITIES

Join an affinity or regional chapter group, such as the Graduates of the Last Decade (GOLD), Women of SU, or Alumni and Students of Color (ASOC), which serve the unique interests of alumni by keeping members engaged through programming, events and volunteer opportunities.

SPIRITUALITY

The Ignatian Spirituality Center (ISC) offers a wide variety of programs and retreats geared for alumni which aim to meet people of all faith traditions – wherever they are in their spiritual journey.
