

Alignment of Learning Outcomes for Seattle University Graduate Students, Nursing Post-Graduate Certificate Completers, and DNP Graduates

	Seattle University Graduates will:
	1. Demonstrate mastery of the competencies required in their profession or field.	2. Demonstrate effective communication in speech and in writing.	3. Exhibit professional integrity, ethical leadership, and effective collaboration skills.	4. Recognize and address moral and ethical challenges within their professions as informed by the Jesuit Catholic tradition.	5. Assess personal and professional levels of commitment to service for a just and sustainable world as informed by a global perspective.	6. Develop a professional perspective focused on life-long learning that is informed by the knowledge and skills of their graduate education.
Post-Graduate Certificate Completers will:
1. Synthesize knowledge from nursing and other disciplines in the provision of evidence-based advanced practice nursing care.	X			X		X
3. Demonstrate competence in an advanced nursing practice specialty.	X	X	X			X
6. Demonstrate effective communication and interprofessional collaboration in the promotion of healthcare access, quality, & outcomes.	X	X	X		X	X
8. Apply ethical decision-making in complex clinical situations.	X		X	X
DNP Graduates will:
1. Synthesize knowledge from nursing & other disciplines in the provision of evidence-based advanced practice nursing care.	X			X		X
2. Utilize information systems technology to improve healthcare access, quality, and outcomes.	X	X	X		X	X
3. Demonstrate competence in an advanced nursing practice specialty.	X	X	X			X
4. Exercise leadership through scholarship, advocacy, & community engagement to achieve just & equitable healthcare systems that improve health potential & reduce health disparities of vulnerable populations.	X		X	X	X	X
5. Evaluate and influence healthcare systems and health policy at local, state, federal, and global levels.	X		X	X	X
6. Demonstrate effective communication & interprofessional collaboration in the promotion of healthcare access, quality, & outcomes.	X	X	X		X	X
7. Evaluate beliefs, values, and ways of knowing to foster lifelong personal and professional development.	X		X	X	X	X
8. Apply ethical decision-making in complex clinical situations.	X		X	X		