

Gary Robinson
212 – 19th Avenue S.W.
Olympia, Washington 98501
360.561.3159
garyscotrobinson@gmail.com

Professional Experience

Department of Information Services

2005 - 2008

Chief Information Officer for State of Washington and Director of central computing, telecommunications, and technology policy agency of the state.

Responsible for state information technology strategic plan, project and portfolio management, and operation of state computing, telecommunications, and internet services. Launched Washington State internet portal with Web 2.0 features, state You Tube channel, and business portal. Implemented Information Technology Infrastructure Library practices and state human resource and offender management systems. Produced national studies on electronic discovery and state study on high-speed internet services.

Washington State received an A rating for Information in the Grading of the States Report from the Pew Center.

Office of Financial Management

1984 - 2005

Assistant Director, Deputy Director, and Acting Director of the central budget and management office of Washington State.

Responsible for expenditure and revenue plans for all state agencies. Administer the state financial policies and implement state fiscal programs, including performance based budgeting, caseload forecasts, risk management, and population surveys. Assist with management of other state agencies.

Parks and Recreation Commission

1981 - 1984

Responsible for program policies and representing the Washington State parks agency before the Legislature and constituent groups.

Senate

1980 - 1981

House of Representatives

1977 - 1980

Responsible for research, bill drafting, and policy reports as a member of the nonpartisan staff of the Washington State Senate and the House of Representatives.

Committees and Boards

National Association of Chief Information Officers Executive Committee, National Electronic Commerce Coordinating Council, Washington State Information Services Board, State Government Management Panel, King County Information Technology Council, University of Washington Information School Board, K-20 Education Network Board, State Interoperability Executive Committee, Justice Information Board, Health Information Board, and High-Speed Internet Work Group.

Education

Harvard University, John F. Kennedy School of Government, Cambridge, Massachusetts
Program for Senior Executives in State and Local Government
Leadership and Strategic Management for Chief Information Officers

The Evergreen State College, Olympia, Washington
Master of Arts Degree in Public Administration

University of Washington, Seattle, Washington
Graduate Courses in Public Administration

Eastern Washington University, Cheney, Washington
Professional Education Certificate

University of Alberta, Edmonton, Alberta
Graduate Courses in Political Science

Pitzer College, Claremont, California
Bachelor of Arts Degree in Political Studies