

STMM 561 CONTEMPORARY CHRISTIAN SPIRITUALITY AND PRAYER

Summer Quarter, 2011

July 25 – July 29

Instructor: Alexandra Kovats, csjp, Ph.D.

E-mail: cosmicdancer@comcast.net

Telephone: (206) 322 8560

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is designed to introduce students to some of the important themes in contemporary Christian spirituality and to a variety of approaches to prayer. Students will apply these themes to reflect upon and articulate their personal spirituality. They will also be invited to explore the theological and pastoral implications of these different approaches to prayer and spirituality. Keeping a reflection journal is strongly recommended for this course as a means of gaining insight and growth into one's spiritual journey. Class sessions will include lecture, prayer experiences, reflective times, music and discussion.

OBJECTIVES

1. To become familiar with the key elements of contemporary Christian spirituality and how these themes find expression in one's personal life.
2. To experience and become familiar with a variety of prayer forms which will enable one to practice those forms which express and enhance one's personal spirituality.
3. To deepen one's process of self-reflection and to be able to articulate one's relationship to the God of one's understanding.
4. To deepen one's appreciation of the sacredness of all life.
5. To reflect on and evaluate the pastoral implications of the different approaches to prayer and Christian spirituality.

PRE-COURSE and COURSE REQUIREMENTS

1. Attend all class sessions.

2. Read all the required texts before class.

Please read the books with your “head and heart.” Take notes (for yourself) and keep track of questions, resistances, “ahas” and concerns that emerge for you.

3. Establish or re-affirm a 15 minute daily prayer practice at least a month before the course begins.

4. Choose one of the texts (either on the required or recommended list) and write a 1000 word (four page, double spaced) typed, reflection paper about the book addressing the following:

What do you consider to be the main points made by the author in the book?

Include quotes and page numbers where relevant.

Engage in dialogue with ideas from the text including some of your own reflections, experiences and questions.

Due: first day of class, July 25, 2011. (or you may choose to send it to me electronically to cosmicdancer@comcast.net on or before July 25th!)

5. Denominational Interview and Write Up

Seek out a spiritual and/or pastoral leader in your denomination and interview them about their understanding and experience of spirituality and their spiritual practices.

Suggested questions during the interview:

What is your understanding and experience of spirituality? What are some images or metaphors that support your understanding and/or your experience of spirituality?

Who are some of the people and authors from your denomination who have significantly shaped your understanding of spirituality?

Name and describe some significant insights and characteristics of your denomination’s approach to spirituality. What do you consider its strengths and its weaknesses?

Name and describe a book written by someone in your denomination that would help someone gain insights about your denomination’s approach to spirituality.

What people and resources have been important influences on your spirituality and spiritual practices outside of your denomination?

Describe your spiritual practices. How do they influence your life and ministry?

What suggestions would you offer for someone who is in the process of establishing a spiritual practice in their lives?

Ask them any other questions that seem important to you in order to better understand their spirituality.

Write up the interview in a 4-5 page paper (typed, double spaced).

Due: first day of class, July 25, 2011. (or you may choose to send it to me electronically to cosmicdancer@comcast.net on or before July 25th!)

6. Integration/reflection paper

This 3-4 page paper (typed, double spaced) provides you with the opportunity to reflect on how the experience of this course and the readings have clarified and expanded your understanding and experience of prayer and spirituality. You may also choose to comment on insights that challenged and/or surprised you, and articulate where you are in your search of Mystery.

Due: Last Day of Class

7. Please fill out the attached questionnaire and send it to me no later than

July 10th, 2011 You can e-mail it to: cosmicdancer@comcast.net or you can mail it to: Alexandra Kovats, csjp 1104 21st Avenue East, Seattle, WA 98112

Thank you!
