

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

In the Political Science Department at Seattle University, we offer courses on political philosophy; U.S. politics; law and legal studies; comparative politics; international relations; political economy; and studies of race, gender, sexuality, and class. We prepare students for career success, leadership and social responsibility. Many students attend law school or graduate school after graduation. Our network of alumni works at local and national government institutions, non-governmental organizations, law firms and other legal entities, and a range of other public and private jobs.

Degrees offered: BA, BA with departmental honors, specialization in Legal Studies

UNIVERSITY CORE REQUIREMENTS

The Core curriculum is Seattle University's common undergraduate educational experience. The Core is a thoughtfully designed, integrated curriculum created to help all SU students grow as scholars, as citizens, and as reflective and engaged whole persons.

Students who complete an approved Associates degree (DTA) will be guaranteed junior standing (90 quarter transfer credits) upon admission to Seattle University, and eight of the University Core requirements will be waived. The following Core courses must be taken at SU or another Jesuit institution:

- UCOR 2100 Theological Explorations
- UCOR 2500 Philosophy of the Human Person
- UCOR 2910 Business Ethics
